

Financial Controls and Anti-Fraud Summary

Spending follows documented approvals and separation of duties.

Procurement uses quotations or price checks for significant purchases where practical.

Payments are backed by invoices, delivery evidence, and reconciliations.